

Inland Northwest Council Facility Rental Prices

Camp Facilities	Description	Capacity	Use Timeframe	BSA Unit Price	Non-Scout Group Price	Notes
Campsites	Open clearings designated for camping with fire rings	12-40 people	Overnight	$10-20/night	$20-30/night	Prices Vary based on site size and amenities like tent platforms, electricity or shelters
Cabins	Cabins ranging from small 2-person cabins with bunks to large barrack style cabins	2-8 people	Overnight	$10-30/night	$20-50/night	Prices Vary based on cabin size and amenities like electricity, running water, etc.
Program Areas & Shelters	Includes areas like firebowls or parade fields and shelters like the STEM Lodge at Grizzly, the Ardvaark Shelter or the Tree-House at Cowles	10-100 people	Day Time	$0-30/day	$0-50/day	Some areas like fire-bowls and parade fields are free addons to a campsite or lodge reservation, others like the Ardvaark Shelter are their own rentable facility.
Ranges & Waterfronts	Specific Program areas which require more direct supervision to use	8-40 people	Day Time	$30-40/day	$50-60/day	Renters are responsible for their own supervision at these locations and all use must fall within the camp rules and posted guidelines
Easton Dining Hall	The main lodge at Camp Easton, includes the use of the kitchen facilities and equipment	200 people	Day Time	$150/day $50 deposit	$300/day $100 deposit	The main lodge at the camp, and the area immediately surrounding the lodge for parking/unloading (does not allow for blocking the main road through camp, clarify with Ranger on arrival) The use of the kitchen facility and equipment requires at least one person to have a food handlers permit. The Lodges require a security deposit which may be forfeited if the kitchen and equipment are not appropriately cleaned.
Cowles Carbon Lodge	The main lodge at Cowles Scout Reservation, includes the use of the kitchen facilities and equipment	250 people	Day Time	$150/day $50 deposit	$400/day $100 deposit	The main lodge at the camp, and the surrounding area and parking (parking availability may change seasonally) also includes use of the A/V equipment in the lodge. Use of the kitchen facility and equipment requires at least one person to have a food handlers permit. The Lodges require a security deposit which may be forfeited if the kitchen and equipment are not appropriately cleaned.
Grizzly Lodge	The main lodge at Camp Grizzly, includes the use of the kitchen facilities and equipment	200 people	Day Time	$100/day $50 deposit	$200/day $100 deposit	The main lodge at the camp, the surrounding area and parking (parking availability may change seasonally) The use of the kitchen facility and equipment requires at least one person to have a food handlers permit. The Lodges require a security deposit which may be forfeited if the kitchen and equipment are not appropriately cleaned.